The Concept: Relaxation by the sea

With impeccable design, high quality comforts and extravagance every way you look, Lotus is one of the standout villas in Mykonos, less than 15 minutes away from the buzzy town. Located in Kanalia, in the southwestern part of the island, this luxury Mykonos villa juts out gracefully from the rocky coastline and offers guests incredible panoramic views of the sapphire Aegean Sea. Comfortable and delicate, Lotus is the ideal choice for those who want the tranquility and peace of a Greek island combined with the option of fabulous activities nearby and access to a private cove.

Outdoor ambience

Lotus' outdoor spaces feature the classic elements of Cycladic design –think whitewashed walls, stone and wood– and a whole list of perks to please even the most discerning guests. Indulge by the impressive L-shaped infinity pool, that stretches around the large terrace with the ample sitting and recreational space. Enjoy alfresco meals from the BBQ at the pergola-shaded dining area and soak up the superb view, while you get sun kissed by the pool on the cozy loungers. We saved the best for last; plunging in the pool is always a great idea, but we have a greater one for you: follow a flight of stairs down to a concrete platform with sunbeds right on the sea and meet your own private dock for this summer!

Interior Design

Filled to the brim with contemporary art and white furnishings, Lotus offers a discreet opulence for a dream-come-true escape. Flow between spaces is a crucial element for taking full advantage of the light and the great views, so the living room and dining area are smoothly connected with the fully equipped open plan kitchen. The distinguished Greek architects that created this gorgeous villa had your privacy in mind, so the 6 en-suite double bedrooms were designed to be a quiet sanctuary for 14 guests, who will enjoy the luxury amenities the rooms have to offer.
